

SPONSORSHIP APPLICATION GUIDE

Columbia Basin Trust sponsorships support the efforts of community members and organizations that host events in the Trust's operating area; see area here. These sponsorships provide support to as many community events and celebrations, festivals and fairs as possible that benefit as many Basin residents as possible. Sponsorship amounts range from $250 to $1,500.

WHO CAN APPLY?

Eligible applicants include non-profit organizations, First Nations organizations, local/regional governments, public organizations and businesses.

WHEN IS THE APPLICATION DEADLINE?

Applications for sponsorships are accepted continuously during the fiscal year which runs from April 1 to March 31. Applications are evaluated and grants are issued as they are received until all available funds have been granted.

WHAT IS NOT ELIGIBLE FOR SPONSORSHIP?

- Events of political parties, advocacy or lobby groups
- Events that include a direct religious activity will be assessed on its benefit to the broader community.
- Events of organizations that are exclusive or discriminative in nature and are not open to the general public regardless of background or affiliation (e.g. organizations based on race, fraternity, etc.).
- Retroactive funding
- Travel costs
- Sports teams' equipment or tournaments
- Fundraising donations
- Events that will primarily or exclusively provide benefits to individuals.

The Trust retains the right to determine individual event eligibility.
