

Climate Action Program

Highlights

From 2017 to 2020

the Trust's Climate Action Program supported communities to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and adapt to climate change impacts.

28 Communities Participated

19 Climate Action Meetings

19 Workshops and Presentations

362 Climate Action Meeting Participants from 252 Organizations

86% Research, Data, Education Projects

14% Action Projects

Legacy and Innovation Project Highlights

- Organics diversion pilot project, technical composting training, and solutions collaboration
- Regional flood hazard LiDAR acquisition
- Columbia Basin Climate Source website
- Community Tree Management Adaptation Guide
- Golden truck stop electrification feasibility assessment
- Canal Flats Flood Risk Assessment and Mapping
- Cranbrook watershed monitoring and climate adaptation project
- Columbia Valley electric carshare
- ʔaqəm flood risk assessment and mitigation
- Golden ice jam monitoring program
- Elkford aquifer mapping and precipitation projections project

$784K for 21 Projects