

FOOD ACCESS AND RECOVERY GRANTS, 2022 LIST OF PROJECTS APPROVED FOR FUNDING

Community	Organization	Project Name	Description	Amount
Cranbrook	Community Connections Society of Southeast BC	Expanded Meal Production and Delivery	Community Connections Society of Southeast BC will expand on existing food recovery programming by upgrading kitchen equipment and developing recipes for culturally and nutritionally diverse meals.	$35,000
Fernie	Wildsight Elk Valley	EcoGarden Food Yard	Wildsight Elk Valley will purchase equipment to upgrade the existing community EcoGarden growing space to improve access to locally produced food in Fernie.	$32,000
Golden	Métis Nation Columbia River Society	Traditional Plant Knowledge for Cultural Practices and Teaching	The Métis Nation Columbia River Society will provide members and community with traditional plant knowledge and cultural teachings centered around food access, processing and preservation.	$13,500
Kimberley	Kimberley Edible Gardens and Greenhouse Society	Three Season Greenhouse and Tool Rental	The Kimberley Edible Gardens and Greenhouse Society will construct a greenhouse to increase access to locally produced food. Tools will be purchased to increase production and support organization sustainability through a rental program.	$14,000
Kimberley	Kimberley Wellness Foundation	Commercial Kitchen Development	Kimberley Wellness Foundation will install commercial kitchen equipment to increase volume and efficiency of meal production.	$48,000
Revelstoke	Revelstoke Bear Aware Society	Revelstoke Food Share Website	The Revelstoke Bear Aware Society will improve their Fruit Share website, which connects homeowners, who have fruit trees, with other residents to schedule fruit pickups.	$8,100
Slocan Valley	W.E. Graham Community	Kitchen Equipment Upgrade	W.E. Graham Community Service Society will upgrade kitchen equipment at the Slocan Valley	$16,500

	Service Society		Food Cupboard to increase capacity to provide access to affordable, quality, local food in the Slocan Valley.
Yaqit ?a-knuqi 'it First Nation	Yaqit ?a-knuqi 'it	Meat Processing Centre for Cultural Practices and Teaching	Yaqit ?a-knuqi 'it will construct a building that houses equipment to allow community members to store their game before it is ready to be processed.	$80,000
				$247,100

- 30 -

For more information contact:

Claire Samulak
Columbia Basin Trust
1.800.505.8998
csamulak@ourtrust.org